

At a Glance

6. Current middle-level news and resources

Submit Articles About Middle Schools to Principal

Share your experiences of leading a middle-level school with 30,000 of your peers as a contributor to the “Ten to Teen” column in Principal magazine. Ten to Teen articles are 1,000 to 1,500 words and focus on the special circumstances of leading middle-level schools. Visit the Principal Web page for submission guidelines.

www.naesp.org/writing

Poster Contest on the Future of Cities

“EnVision 2050: Is the Future Nature?” is looking for poster art works, designs, and ideas created by students in grade 6 through 12 that address the future of tomorrow’s cities. Posters should envision how cities will look and how people will move within them, with an eye toward nature and natural processes. The entry deadline is May 15. Visit the Urban Revision Web site for competition guidelines.

www.urbanrevision.com/envision2050/index.php

Science Video Competition

The Discovery Education/3M Young Scientist Challenge is a competition in which students create a one-to two-minute video about a specific scientific concept related to the 2008 YSC theme, “The Science of Space.” The competition, which is accepting entries between now and June 15, is open to students in grades 5-8. For more information about the 2008 Discovery Education/3M Young Scientist Challenge or to enter the competition, visit www.discoveryeducation.com/youngscientist.

PSA Contest for Youths

The By Kids For Kids youth empowerment company and DoSomething.org announce the Advertise Your Cause Media Challenge, which encourages young people to discover what cause matters most to them and then “do something” to propel their cause into the public eye. The competition will reward the most powerful public service announcement (PSA) campaign. Maximum award: $10,000 and national media exposure for the winning PSA. Deadline: June 30.

www.bkfk.com/Modules/Competition/Competition.aspx?section=sayit

At the time of publication, all links were active. Links to and from the NAESP Web site to other sites do not constitute an endorsement by NAESP of any of their contents.

Published by:

National Association of Elementary School Principals

Member Services

1615 Duke Street

Alexandria, VA 22314-3483

Phone: 703-684-3345

Fax: 703-548-5568

www.naesp.org