NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF ELEMENTARY SCHOOL PRINCIPALS

Serving All Elementary and Middle Level Principals

Dear NAESP member:

As an employed professional member* of the National Association of Elementary School Principals, you automatically receive $2 million in professional liability insurance and up to $10,000 in due process legal benefits coverage. This is a benefit of your membership in NAESP at no cost to you.

In the event you are faced with a lawsuit arising from your profession, NAESP's professional liability plan with legal assistance benefits will pay your defense costs and contribute up to $2 million for a judgment or settlement. The policy protects you against a broad range of exposures, such as injury to students under your supervision, failure to educate, violation of student civil rights, and improper placement of students.

Additionally, the plan will reimburse legal fees incurred in due process job-protection matters based on the number of years you continuously maintain your NAESP membership. For each year of membership, you are eligible for $1,000 in defense reimbursement, up to $10,000, subject to a $500 deductible.†

With lawsuits against educators increasing, NAESP believes this coverage is important and is pleased to provide this benefit for you. If your primary employment is with an educational organization, you may cover part-time educational jobs outside of your W-2 employment as an educator (such as consultant, tutor or teacher). Add coverage for part-time educational activities to your current $2 million liability limit for $75 per year.

If you are an independent contractor you may not be covered under this professional liability plan with legal assistance benefits. However, by virtue of your membership in NAESP, you may be eligible to purchase private practice professional liability insurance. We recommend you call Forrest T. Jones & Company at (800) 821-7303 to review your particular employment circumstances and your eligibility for this plan.

The following items regarding your policy are enclosed:

1. A fact sheet providing a brief overview of NAESP's professional liability plan with legal assistance benefits.
2. The declarations page for the educators professional liability insurance policy.
3. Upgrade application to add part-time coverage to your current policy.

Please file this letter and the Declarations Page with your important personal papers. You can access the entire policy online at <https://www.ftj.com/NAESP>. If you have any questions about your policy or do not have access to the Internet, please call our group insurance administrator, Forrest T. Jones & Company, at (800) 821-7303.

Sincerely,

L. Earl Franks, Ed.D., CAE
Executive Director

* You must be a full-time, W-2 employee of a school, college or university, and the job must be your main occupation. Registered nurses, school board members and owners of private schools: see fact sheet for eligibility details.

† See enclosed fact sheet for more detail.

NAESP In-Dues Professional Liability Plan with Legal Benefits Program

The National Association of Elementary School Principals' in-dues professional liability plan with legal assistance benefits is the solution to uncertain or inadequate liability coverage. You'll have peace of mind knowing that if your school district doesn't have sufficient coverage or refuses to defend you, your back-up plan is in place. Your association's affiliation with the Trust for Insuring Educators (TIE) makes this valuable member benefit possible.

Features

Your in-dues plan:

- Pays up to $2 million for damages arising from professional liability and employment liability lawsuits.
- Pays defense costs in addition to the liability limit for professional liability lawsuits.
- Covers claims arising from an act or omission committed by you during the policy period or subsequent to the retroactive coverage date, as long as the claim is first made against you and reported to us in writing by you during the policy period or any applicable discovery period.
- Provides coverage as long as you remain an NAESP member in good standing and NAESP continues to offer this professional liability plan with legal assistance benefits as an in-dues member benefit.

What's Covered

The in-dues plan protects you against a broad range of exposures associated with your educational duties, such as:

- Injuries to students under your supervision
- Improper placement of students
- Hiring unqualified people
- Defamation
- Failure to educate, promote or grant credit to a student
- Violation of student civil rights

- Improper methods employed in instruction, counseling, research design, etc.
- Improper reassignment, demotion or termination of an employee
- Violation of an employee's civil rights

Additional Protection

After a $100 deductible, the plan also pays 90 percent of your attorney's fees if you:

- Are sued by an employee you supervise regarding a covered personnel matter ($25,000 per claim, per policy period).
- Are accused of sexual misconduct, provided you are found not guilty or the charges are dismissed ($50,000 per claim, per policy period).
- Face criminal charges arising out of corporal punishment, provided you are found not guilty or the charges are dismissed ($25,000 per claim, per policy period).

Legal Benefits Program

If you are subject to a job-related due-process proceeding, NAESP's legal benefits program will reimburse up to $1,000 of legal expenses for each year of continuous membership, to a maximum of $10,000 (subject to a $500 deductible per claim).

 Available to members in the Active or Emeritus membership categories only.*

Eligibility

As an employed professional member of NAESP, you are automatically insured for $2 million of professional liability coverage. You must be a W-2 employee of a school, college or university; private or public, local regional, state or federal school system, agency or organization. This must be your main occupation.

The plan becomes effective the date your membership is accepted by NAESP and continues as long as you remain an NAESP member in good standing and NAESP continues to offer this professional liability plan with legal assistance benefits as an in-dues member benefit.

If you are a registered nurse, a licensed/certified school psychologist or a physical therapist, you must be performing medically-related teaching or services in the normal course of your duties as an employee of a school to be eligible for coverage.

Exclusions

School board members and owners of private schools are not eligible.

If you are an educator primarily in private practice or an independent contractor, you are not eligible for this program. Please contact the plan administrator at (800) 821-7303 for information about professional liability plans for which you may be eligible.
