Who's Mama is this?

Poll #1 Question: Who is your ideal TV school parent?

- Clair Huxtable (The Cosby Show)
- Marge Simpson (The Simpsons)
- Carol Lambert (Step by Step)
- Peggy Bundy (Married with Children)
- Carol Brady (The Brady Bunch)
- Lisa Landry (Sister, Sister)

(Why? Use the Chat box to write in your response. Be sure to send to 'all panelists and attendees'.)

Family Comes First

Parental Involvement vs. Engagement

- Doing “to” vs doing “with”
- Telling vs showing
- Asking questions or giving directions

Poll #2 Question: What is the purpose of the majority of your parent activities?

- Sharing information
- Soliciting support
- Equipping parents with resources
- Showing how to access district/school tools
- Providing hands on activities to support at home

Pump your brakes!

- Language barriers
- Self-Confidence
- Schedules
- Demographics
- Buy in

Moving from Involvement to Engagement

Involvement

- Coffee with the Principal
- Parent Surveys
- Parent Teacher conferences
- Content Presentations
- Testing Presentations

Engagement

- Make and Take Sessions
- Parent Focus Groups
- Increase student ownership
- Hands on learning sessions
- Data conversations

Helping Families Help Students

Supporting the Homeschool Parent

- Strategically communicate
 - Find the happy medium
- Acknowledge the new normal is not easy
 - Share your personal challenges. Be relatable.
- Engage the whole family
 - Offer activities for everyone
- Be realistic.
 - What's important right now?

PPE and the New Normal

CHAMPION
PARENT
APPRECIATION WEEK

Monday: Send one positive message to a parent you don't talk to often

Tuesday: Share a video or message on your class story thanking your parents for their support during distance learning.

Wednesday: Share one activity with your parents they can do at home as a family.

Thursday: Share a memorable picture you have with your parents or children in your Class Dojo.

- Empower parents-encouragement matters
- Listen to parents
- Avoid resource overload
- Relationships are key right now!
- Be vigilant and supportive

Thank you!
