The graphic features a man, Adam Welcome, holding several books. One book is titled 'Kids Deserve It!'. Another book cover is visible with the word 'EMPOWER'. To the right is a larger book cover for 'TEACHERS DESERVE IT' with a colorful, abstract background. A red arrow points from the text 'Let's connect' towards the man. Poll #1 Question: What's your favorite way to connect with other educators?

- Twitter
- eHarmony
- Voxer
- TikTok
- Conferences

If you're not active on Twitter,
I just don't know where you're learning from every single day.

Get Over It

If you're not putting yourself out there to the world in such a way to connect, learn and engage with other educators - you're living on an island and you're going to be very lonely.

Poll #2 Question: What's your favorite way to start a conversation or collaborative relationship with someone else?

- Write a blog post with a friend
- Ask them what their sign is
- Surprise call them at their school
- Start a podcast together
- Ask them a hard question they may not know the answer to

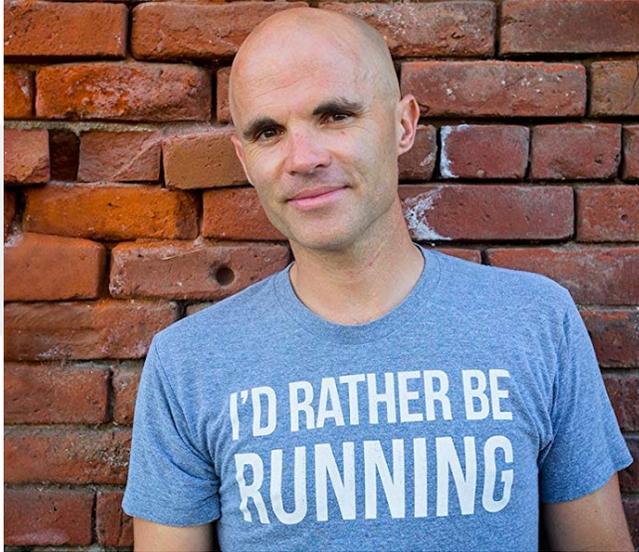

How and Where It All Starts

- It all starts with Twitter
- Then a DM
- Then move to Voxer
- Chat for awhile and get comfortable
- Get some phone numbers
- Make the call
- It's time for Christmas cards

More

- Who and how to follow
- Your profile
- Engage and contribute
- You need a blog
- You need a podcast
- You need to be passionate
- You need to be consistent
- You need to be yourself
- You need to have fun

Thank you!
